Master's Message

My Brothers, as Masons we have suffered through many trying times in our history: wars, famine, poverty, persecution and more. But we as Freemasons have always persevered. As Thomas Paine once wrote, "These are the times that try men's souls," and this indeed will be a trying time. Please do not lose your faith in the Grand Architect of the Universe, for he is our savior; in Him you should put your trust, and if you persevere you shall be saved. Eat right, exercise, get plenty of rest, drink lots of fluid, take vitamin C and D. Don't ever lose site of who you are or what you can be. I am writing today to tell you that our officers and I are hear for you. If you are a Brother in need or who needs good council, please reach out to me or any of the officers. We will try to come to your aid in so far as our ability to do so permits. I hope we are back at Lodge within the next few weeks chalking this up to another of life's tests and experiences. Be safe, be kind, be happy.

W.:M.: Fred Marotti

Greetings from the West;

As I oversee the Craft during the hours of labor, I notice the Lodge standing strong with enthusiasm and genuinely harmony. Although only a couple of months into the new year Officers of 2020, candidates and Brothers all, are busy working. We have already seen two very successful Entered Apprentice Degrees proving the positive effects of a new direction towards education and proficiency. It is great to see a constructive, visible increase of activity from our most valuable resource, our Past Masters. As always, I am available to any Brother with new ideas, ritual rehearsal and of course concerns.

Sincerely & Fraternally,
Bro. Keith MacDowall
Senior Warden

Greetings from the South!!!!

Spring is the best time of year!! Flowers are in bloom, the weather warms up, and fishing season opens!! Our St. Patrick's Table Lodge was a hit!! Hats off to the crew in the kitchen for a fantastic meal of corned beef and cabbage along with some awesome homemade soda bread made by our own Dan Keirstead!!! We have many great meals planned for the year in the kitchen, and as always if you have any food allergies, or have a special recipe you would like to try let us know!!!

See you in Lodge!!!

Sincerely & Fraternally,

Bro. Scott Atkins
Junior Warden and The Stewards

Lodges of Instruction

The Education Committee is looking into online Lodges of Instruction. When we find a suitable platform for video conferencing the craft will be contacted. The hope is to keep our newly made Masons up on their proficiency work and to provide a secure space where Brothers can get a refresher on their Masonic education. Stay Tuned!
